

Lesson Evaluation¹

1. What did you enjoy about teaching this lesson? _____

2. To what extent did the different parts of the lesson match the interest of the learners? _____

 - Did the learners actively participate? If not, why do you think that was? _____

 - Did the learners ask questions to extend their learning? If not, can you think why they did not? _____

 - Did the learners answer questions with enthusiasm? _____

 - Did the learners express interest in learning more? _____

3. To what extent did the different parts of the lesson match the capabilities of the learners? _____

 - Did all learners understand your instruction? If some did not, why do you think that was? _____

 - Did all the learners complete their assignments? If some did not, why do you think that was? _____

 - Did the learners remain focused on the lesson for most of the time? If some learners were distracted, why do you think that was? _____

 - Did you feel the level of the lesson was appropriate? Was it too difficult/complex or too simple for any individual or group? _____

4. If you were to teach this lesson again, in what ways would you revise your plan? _____

¹ Based on a document from The Core Curriculum for Spiritual Education, "Teacher Training Participant's Handbook", pg. 56, National Teacher Training Center, Davison, Michigan.